From the Pastor's Desk

Greetings to you and peace from God our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

What a week! As I prepared to write this column the beginning of last week, I had no idea what would lay ahead. I knew that Jay Innerst was not doing well with his battle with health problems. I visited with him Monday afternoon and got home just before three o'clock. As I walked in the house Jeri asked me if I heard the news. I replied "no" what is happening. Well, he didn't need to say what because I saw on the television scenes from the tragic fire at Notre Dame Cathedral. I had never been there in person, but you didn't need to have seen it up close and personal to feel a great sense of loss. And, of course, as network television tends to do, the coverage went on and on. But, there was one image that was telecast that jumped out to me. It was the vision of the glowing cross in the background of charred pews and with smoke from embers wafting in the foreground. When I saw that, I was very moved because the message I received was that no matter how dark our days may be; no matter how tragic the events of our lives may get; no matter what,... we are assured that God is with us ALWAYS— in the good and the bad times as evidenced with the vision of that cross!

About 9:15 that evening I got a call informing me that Jay had passed. As I visited with the family that evening, of course there was sadness and some tears as we would expect. But, because Jay had suffered for a long time with his ongoing health problems, there was also a relief that he would no longer suffer. I reflected on the visits I had shared with Jay and Carolyn and the family over the past years and one thing that connected in my mind is that as Jay faced one thing after another with his health and as he had repeatedly been hospitalized, I feel he saw the glow of the cross of Jesus in his darkest times. He always had a positive attitude and that beloved smile on his face. I only knew Jay for a short time, but he touched my life in such a way that I will cherish forever having known him!

Then, included in this past week was Maundy Thursday and our worship service. This is always a very moving service for me because I realize that Jesus knew how that day would end. He knew that he would be punished. He knew that he would die. I (unfortunately) can somewhat identify with what Judas did since he was more concerned about the things of this world rather than what Jesus showed him and taught him. I will admit, there are times in my life when I find myself in the shoes of Judas and when I put my trust in things rather than in my Lord, I can say that I too betray Jesus. And over the years I have repeatedly said that I fully identify with Peter in that I have my times of great faith when I figuratively say "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you!"

But, I also have times when I put self before serving my Lord that I figuratively say, “I do not know him!” I usually end up wiping tears during the Maundy Thursday/Good Friday worship times.

And then, Sunday morning when we proclaim - “HE IS RISEN!!!” - the “unexpected” twist to the story. What a joy it is to know in my heart that (here comes another earworm) - “I serve a risen Savior, he’s in the world today.” It is because - “HE LIVES” and “HE LIVES WITHIN MY HEART!!!”

In the remembrance of the joy of Easter worship is also the hurt of the news of bombings in Sri Lanka. Once again we are brought face to face with the ways of the world in which we live. So many people live by the philosophy of “an eye for an eye,... etc.” But, let us live our lives loving one another as Jesus directed us. And, instead of getting even for wrongs done, let us try to forgive. Let us keep in the forefront of our thoughts - WWJD..... What Would Jesus Do? That thought will give our lives a deeper meaning than we could ever imagine!

And, not to slight the beautiful mothers and mother figures of our faith family.... HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY!

God Bless you ALL!

With love - Pastor Lou Ann

MERCY ME STUDY

What are the messages that Bart Millard’s band, Mercy Me (“I Can Only Imagine”) are conveying? What do the lyrics mean? This writer has been obsessed with their songs since attending the Mercy Me concert in 2018 in York and has a desire to share thoughts, insights and experiences with others. Together we will have fun listening to the music, discovering how the lyrics are connected to Scripture, and how the lyrics speak to us about our life’s journey. Featured songs will include: “I Can Only Imagine” “Greater” “Flawless” “Even If” “Lifer” “Shake” “Grace Got You” . . .

If this sounds fun and you have a desire to listen to and explore the messages behind Mercy Me songs, then please join us each Sunday morning from April 28-May 26, 10:30-11:30. Bring your knitting! Bring your friends! Bring your children! There will be coffee, tea and snacks and maybe even some dancing—as the Spirit moves you! ALL AGES ARE WELCOME!

Any questions, call Ginny Weber at (717) 246-9027.

THE MEANEST MOTHER IN THE WORLD

We had the meanest mother in the whole world! While other kids ate candy for breakfast, we had to have cereal, eggs, and toast. When others had a Pepsi and a Twinkie for lunch, we had to eat sandwiches. And you can guess our mother fixed us a dinner that was different than other kids had too.

Mother insisted on knowing where we were at all times. You would think we were convicts in a prison. She had to know who our friends were, and what we were doing with them. She insisted that if we said we would be gone for an hour, we would be gone for an hour or less. We were ashamed to admit it, but she had the nerve to break the child Labor Laws by making us work. We had to wash the dishes, make the beds, learn to cook, vacuum the floor, do laundry, and all sorts of cruel jobs. I think she would lay awake at night thinking of more things for us to do.

She always insisted on us telling the truth the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. By the time we were teenagers, she could read our minds, and life was really tough. She wouldn't let our friends just honk the horn when they drove up. They had to come up to the door so she could meet them. While everyone else could date when they were 12 or 13, we had to wait until we were 16. Because of our mother we missed out on lots of things other kids experienced. None of us have ever been caught shoplifting, vandalizing others property, or ever arrested for any crime. It was all her fault. We never got drunk, took up smoking, stayed out all night, or a million other things other kids did. Sundays were reserved for church, and we never missed once. We knew better than to ask to spend the night with a friend on Saturdays. Now that we have left home, we are all God-fearing, educated, honest adults. We are doing our best to be mean parents just like our mom was. The world just doesn't have enough mean moms anymore. Steve Heese

THE 23RD PSALM MOM

My mom is my shepherd; I shall not want. She makes me lie down under cool, downy comforts. She watches me play beside still waters. She restores my soul.

She leads me in paths of respect, responsibility, and goodness, for I am her namesake!

Yea, even though I walk past monsters in the dark, I will not be scared, because my mom is always near me. Her hands and her voice, they comfort me.

Mama sets the table and cheerfully calls me to dinner even in front of big, mean bullies.

She anoints my skinned knees and broken heart with kisses. She smiles and throws me a towel when my cup runneth over.

Surely God's peace, power, and mercy shall uphold me all the days of my life, for my Mother taught me to dwell in the house of God forever.

Unknown

"Motherhood is full of frustrations and challenges... but eventually they move out." - Unknown

The mother of three notoriously unruly youngsters was asked whether or not she'd have children if she had it to do over again. "Yes," she replied. "But not the same ones." - David Finkelstein

A little boy forgot his lines in a Sunday school presentation. His mother was in the front row to prompt him. She gestured and formed the words silently with her lips, but it did not help. Her son's memory was blank. Finally, she leaned forward and whispered the cue, "I am the light of the world." The child beamed and with great feeling and a loud clear voice said, "My mother is the light of the world." - Bits and Pieces, August, 1989

A teacher gave her class of second graders a lesson on the magnet and what it does. The next day in a written test, she included this question: "My full name has six letters. The first one is M. I pick up things. What am I?" When the test papers were turned in, the teacher was astonished to find that almost 50 percent of the students answered the question with the word Mother. - Unknown

Magic exists. Who can doubt it, when there are rainbows and wildflowers, the music of the wind and the silence of the stars? Anyone who has loved has been touched by magic. It is such a simple and such an extraordinary part of the lives we live.

GOD MADE ONE VERSION OF YOU

Da Vinci painted one Mona Lisa. Beethoven composed one Fifth Symphony. And God made one version of you! God custom-designed you for a one-of-a-kind assignment—"to each according to each one's unique ability"

(Matthew 25:15).

"The Spirit has given each of us a special way of serving others" (1 Corinthians 12:7). Did the apostle Paul say, The Spirit has given some of us?...or a few of us? No! "The Spirit has given each of us a special way of serving others."

You don't have to do everything! You are not God's solution to society, but you are a solution in society. Don't worry about the skills you don't have. Don't covet the strengths others do have. Just extract your uniqueness —to God's glory!

Normal day, let me be aware of the treasure you are. Let me learn from you, love you, bless you before you depart. Let me not pass you by in quest of some rare and perfect tomorrow. Let me hold you while I may, for it may not always be so. One day I shall dig my nails into the earth, or bury my face into the pillow, or stretch myself taut, or raise my hands to the sky and want, more than all the world, your return.

Mary Jean Iron

I bet you could do something for someone today, who'd remember it for the rest of their life.

FREEDOM IN AMERICA

Freedom in America
Isn't really free;
We often pay a price
To keep our liberty.

Remember those we loved,
Who fought for us, and died;
And those we never knew
For whom others mourned and cried.

At home our "war" for freedom
Is sadly overdue;
We've let corruption stage
A sad and grievous coup.

No longer can we brush off
Dishonesty and greed,
Lust for wealth and power;
We can't, we won't concede.

Complacency is weakness
Patriots can't afford;
We have to act on wrongs
That cannot be ignored.

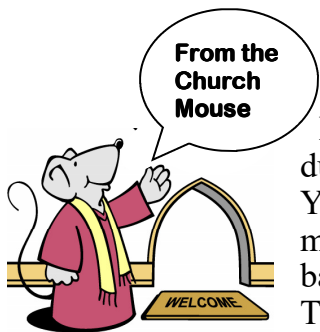

We must give up some time,
Spent on other pleasures,
To restore America's freedom,
To keep America's treasures.

Freedom in America
Isn't really free
It's up to American patriots;
It's up to you and me.

Joanna Fuchs

In this noisy, restless, bewildering age, there is a great need for quietness of spirit. Even in our communion with God we are so busy presenting our problems, asking for help, seeking relief that we leave no moments of silence to listen for God's answers. By practice we can learn to submerge our spirits beneath the turbulent surface waves of life and reach that depth of our being where all is still, where no storms can reach us. Here only can we forget the material world and its demands on us.

Revelations for MAY from “Bly Mire” Mouse

WHAT A GREAT TIME WE HAD AT THE EASTER PARTY!!!

Most people don't know this, but Mire, myself and all our little ones enjoyed dumpster diving to get some of the food that was shared during the Brunch! YUM! YUM! YUM! You people are THEE best cooks ever!!! And, I heard many people comment as they came into church that morning that the smell of bacon cooking made their mouth water.... except for Barb Marshall. Many THANKS to everyone who shared in the brunch on Palm Sunday. THANK YOU to DIANA MYERS for preparing a craft for the children while the eggs were hidden.... in the church because of the drizzly weather! But the kiddos had a great time! I think the Bunny Helpers had as much fun hiding the eggs. And, I gained a new understanding of personality traits.... The adults hunting their eggs were more fierce than the children! But, as I said.... A great time was had by all. THANK YOU to everyone who donated candy; who helped fill the eggs; and to BARB MARSHALL for all she did!

I will share with you too that my tummy feels so yummy!!! I had one of the chicken dinners from the Bar-B-Q.....W - O - W!!! They are THEE best in the area!!! I heard that the dinners were sold out by 11:30. I can understand because Mire and I were so ready for the bar-b-q to happen again. I heard the men talking about the work they are going to do on the pit on the 27th. I would offer to help, but being as small as I am, I can't lift any blocks or do heavy lifting. So, I will simply say... THANK YOU MEN'S GROUP!!!

I also have enjoyed having the book nook in the Sunday School room. I frequently explored the offerings back there. I did hear at S.O.S. this month that you will be able to buy a bag of books for one dollar. WOO-HOO!!!! I am going to stock up! I will admit that if you get some books that have little mice paw prints on some of the pages, I was munching some candy and didn't realize my teeny-toes were messy. OOPS - my bad!

May's humor: Question: What goes Ha, Ha, Ha, PLOP?

Answer: Someone who laughs his head off!

Bible humor: A father was reading Bible stories to his young son. He read, “The man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned to salt.”

His son asked, “What happened to the flea?”

With our love,

Your faith-friends, BLY and MIRE and family!

P.S. - HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY and HAPPY MOTHER “FIGURE” DAY!!!

LOVE YOU ALL!!!
